Roll Call - Quorum present

Treasurer Campbell sent spreadsheet showing current active/dropped members sorted by agency..
More members have dropped from membership!!
Maybe we can reach out to the members who have dropped

Distribution of Cards, hard copies vs email
Hard copies - 1111 E Broad and Integrity Drive
Medicaid In Person staff

The original motion stated to be eligible for 2025 member incentive you must have been a member by close of business Nov 30, 2025. would be eligible for the 2025 member incentive. To be eligible the member must be a active member in good standing at the time of distribution.

Discussion held regarding members who have dropped membership, were promoted or no longer employed with the agency. VP Grant stated and other eboard members stated if they were a member Nov 30, they should be eligible for the 2025 incentive, its no fair to punish those members because we were not able to distribute the cards timely.

Motion to give 2025 member incentive to any member who was active as of Nov 20, 2025 made by Tonya Reese, friendly amendment added by Ul'Ique Campbell to to state member must be in good standing and will include individuals who dropped their membership, received promotion or became separated from the would be eligible for the 2025 incentive, 2nd by Ul'Ique Campbell. MOTION CARRIED

Discussion.....we will reach out to OCSEA to see if there is any specifications regarding give incentives to anyone who is no longer with the union/agency.

At this time we have 579 active members who are eligible to receive gift cards, we will distribute all gift cards via email. NO HARD CARDS WILL BE ORDERED.

We will go through and purge emails and remove those who are no longer in Chapter 2599.

Motion to amend the original CBTU Convention attendee guidelines to state in the event a retire is not eligible to attend another eligible member would be able to attend as long as we meet the budget requirements, made by Tonya Reese, 2nd by Ul'Ique Campbell. MOTION CARRIED
